

FORREST SOLUTIONS ANNOUNCES THE ADDITION OF ANTHONY DAVIES AS CHIEF REVENUE OFFICER

Forrest Solutions, an Onsite Outsourcing and Staffing company announces new Chief Revenue Officer with the addition of industry veteran Anthony Davies.

New York, New York – December 9, 2020 – Forrest Solutions, the Onsite Outsourcing and Staffing company today announced that veteran growth specialist and business strategist, Anthony Davies has joined as the Chief Revenue Officer. Anthony will lead the Sales and Marketing functions and champion the company’s partnership creation, growth and expansion.

Forrest Solutions Chairman and Owner Steve Forrest notes, “As an increasing number of law firms and corporations seek onsite outsourcing and staffing solutions to maintain business during and after the pandemic, it was important for the company to hire this key role to create and manage the organization's growth strategy.”

With an international background spanning the UK, Middle East and the US, Anthony has held executive leadership roles for over two decades. Anthony has a history of demonstrating value for customers and shareholders, leveraging his skills in sales strategy, attracting top talent, change management and creating predictable, scale-able revenues.

Forrest continued, “Anthony understands the way law firms and businesses function, and embodies the combination of strategy and sales that is essential for success today. Organizations require the optimum blend of high quality well-trained people, process efficiency and the latest in technology. Forrest Solutions solves this problem across many verticals, by combining our white glove Onsite Outsourcing services with deep staffing expertise and capability. We are confident that Anthony can help bring important awareness to the rooms where decisions are made about onsite outsourcing, staffing, support and talent.”
